Fire Horse26 Website Terms of Use

Last updated: 08 October 2026

1. About these Terms

These Terms of Use govern access to and use of the Fire Horse26 Ltd website at [insert website address], including our Members' Lounge and resources made available through the website.

Please read these Terms before using the website. By using the website, you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, please discontinue use.

Our Privacy Policy explains how we handle personal information. Our cookie information explains our use of cookies and similar technologies. These notices are available through the website and are separate from these Terms. Using the website does not constitute consent to receive marketing communications.

2. About Fire Horse26

This website is operated by Fire Horse26 Ltd.

Company number: 17021739
Registered office: Beechey House, 87 Church Street, Crowthorne, England, RG45 7AW
Registered in: England

Contact email: info@firehorse26.co.uk

3. Consultancy and Subscription Services

These Terms govern website use. Consultancy services, commercial subscriptions, support hours, fees and other service arrangements are governed by the separately agreed Subscription Terms and Conditions, Subscription Schedule, proposal or appointment.

Where these Terms conflict with an agreed service contract concerning paid services or membership entitlements, the agreed service contract takes precedence.

Website descriptions and promotional information do not, by themselves, create a service contract or change an existing agreement. Any quotation, service commitment or instruction must be agreed through the applicable contracting process.

4. Permitted Use

You may use the website for lawful personal and business purposes, including:

- Learning about our services.
- Contacting us and submitting enquiries.
- Registering for authorised membership access.
- Accessing resources available to you under your membership or another express permission.
- Using permitted materials internally within your business, subject to the applicable licence and service agreement.

You must not use the website unlawfully, fraudulently or in a way that infringes another person's rights.

You must not attempt to gain unauthorised access, bypass access restrictions, introduce malicious software, disrupt the website or collect information through automated means without our written permission.

5. Member Accounts

Access to the Members' Lounge requires an authorised account and may depend on your subscription entitlements.

You must provide accurate registration information, protect your login credentials and notify us promptly if you suspect unauthorised access.

Individual login credentials must not be shared. Where a subscription permits access for several people within an organisation, each person must use an authorised account in accordance with the agreed arrangements.

We may restrict or suspend access where reasonably necessary to address suspected misuse, unauthorised access or a security threat. Any restriction affecting paid membership entitlements will be handled consistently with the applicable subscription agreement and law.

6. Templates and Other Resources

Templates, toolkits, checklists, calendars, cheat sheets, articles and other general resources are provided to support commercial and contractual administration.

They may require adaptation to your contract, project, circumstances and current legal requirements. You remain responsible for checking their suitability, completing them accurately and obtaining appropriate advice where necessary.

General website content and resources do not constitute project-specific professional advice or legal advice. Accessing them or submitting an enquiry does not, by itself, establish a consultancy engagement.

Advice provided under a separately agreed engagement remains subject to that engagement's terms and professional standard of care.

7. Intellectual Property

Unless stated otherwise, intellectual property rights in the website and Fire Horse26 materials are owned by or licensed to Fire Horse26 Ltd.

You may view website content and retain reasonable copies for your own reference. Members may use resources internally within their organisation to the extent permitted by their subscription agreement or the licence accompanying the resource.

Without our prior written permission, you must not:

- Resell or commercially redistribute our materials.
- Publish member resources publicly or share them outside the authorised organisation.
- Incorporate our materials into another commercial consultancy, training or subscription service.

- Present our materials as your own work or remove ownership notices.
- Use our name or logo in a way that suggests an unauthorised endorsement.

Rights in third-party materials, including NEC and JCT contract publications, remain with their respective owners. Access to our website does not grant rights to reproduce those publications.

8. Information You Provide

Please provide accurate information and share only information necessary for your enquiry or agreed services.

You must have appropriate authority and a lawful basis to disclose personal information or documents belonging to others.

Confidential project documents should be provided through an agreed communication method, such as email or secure OneDrive links. Please contact us before sending particularly sensitive information. The website does not currently offer direct client document uploads.

Personal information is handled as explained in our Privacy Policy. Confidential information received in connection with an engagement is also subject to the applicable contractual confidentiality obligations.

9. Website Availability and Security

We take reasonable steps to maintain the website, but cannot guarantee uninterrupted availability, compatibility with every device or freedom from errors.

We may temporarily restrict access for maintenance, updates or security reasons. Changes to website functions do not, by themselves, alter agreed paid service entitlements.

You are responsible for using appropriate security measures on your devices and protecting your accounts.

10. External Links

The website may link to third-party websites, resources or social media platforms for convenience.

We do not control their content, availability or privacy practices. A link does not, by itself, constitute endorsement. Your use of an external service is subject to its own terms and privacy information.

11. Liability

We take reasonable care when preparing website content, but general information may become outdated or contain errors. Please obtain advice appropriate to your circumstances before relying on it for a commercial or contractual decision.

To the extent permitted by law, we exclude implied terms concerning the website and general website content. For business users, we will not be liable for indirect or consequential losses arising from website use.

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or any liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited. Nothing affects statutory rights that cannot lawfully be restricted.

Liability for separately commissioned consultancy or subscription services is governed by the applicable service agreement.

12. Changes to these Terms

We may update these Terms to reflect changes to the website, its features or applicable requirements. The revised version and update date will be published on the website. We will provide appropriate notice of material changes affecting registered users.

Changes apply prospectively and do not retrospectively alter agreed subscription or consultancy terms.

13. Governing Law

These Terms and any related non-contractual obligations are governed by the laws of England and Wales.

For business users, the courts of England and Wales have exclusive jurisdiction. If you use the website as a consumer, this provision does not remove any mandatory protections or rights to bring proceedings in another court available under applicable law.

14. Contact
